

General Terms and Conditions of Sale

ARTICLE 1 - Scope of application

1.1 These General Terms and Conditions of Sale (hereinafter "GT&Cs") apply to all sales and supply concluded between ADEKA POLYMER ADDITIVES EUROPE SAS hereinafter "ADEKA" and any purchaser (hereinafter "the Purchaser"). They determine the exclusive terms and conditions under which ADEKA undertakes to sell its Products and/or supply the Purchaser with them. These GT&Cs constitute, in accordance with article L. 441-1 of the French Commercial Code, the only and unique basis of the commercial relationship between the Parties. Any general terms and conditions of the Purchaser shall have no force or effect and are explicitly rejected by ADEKA, unless: i) they are expressly accepted in writing and signed by one of ADEKA's authorized representatives; or unless ii) ADEKA and the Purchaser expressly agree and sign Special Terms and Conditions, in which case those Special Terms shall be binding for points that conflict with these GT&Cs. Acknowledgement, confirmation or acceptance of a Purchase Order shall not be deemed as acceptance of the Purchaser's general terms and conditions of purchase. Participation by ADEKA in a tender, in a bidding or in a request of quotation shall not be deemed as acceptance of the Purchaser's general terms and conditions of purchase.

1.2 The placing of a Purchase Order by the Purchaser or the delivery of the Products by ADEKA, entails the unrestricted and unreserved acceptance of these GT&Cs by the Purchaser. The Purchaser may not invoke any clause or mention that may appear on its commercial documents without formal, previous, express and written acceptance by ADEKA. The fact that ADEKA does not apply, at a given time, any provision of these GT&Cs shall not be interpreted as a waiver of its right to invoke it at a later date and shall not affect the other provisions hereof.

These GT&Cs are communicated without delay to any Purchaser who so requests. They constitute an integral part of all ADEKA's offers, quotations, order acknowledgments, order confirmations, invoices, and agreements. They are also publicly available and can be consulted and downloaded from ADEKA's public website: www.adeka-pa.eu/legalinformations

1.3 No "click-wrap", "click-through", "browse-wrap" agreement or any other terms that may be presented to access the Purchaser's websites and platforms will have any force or effect regarding the commercial or contractual relationship with ADEKA.

ADEKA and the Purchaser are hereinafter referred to individually as the "Party" and together as the "Parties".

ARTICLE 2 - Orders

2.1 ADEKA issues a written formal Offer (hereinafter the Offer) which governs orders placed by the Purchaser during its period of validity. The Purchaser who places an Order is deemed to have accepted the terms of the Offer and these GT&Cs. ADEKA issues a written receipt through an Order Acknowledgment within two (2) business days after receipt of the Purchase Order. A formal written Order Confirmation is issued by ADEKA before the shipment of the Products, specifying the final price and estimated date of delivery. The Order Acknowledgment, the Order Confirmation together with these GT&Cs, constitute the sales agreement between ADEKA and the Purchaser.

2.2 Requests for changes to the Order by the Purchaser shall only be considered if they are notified, in writing or electronically, in advance to the contact person of ADEKA who issued the Order Confirmation. Their acceptance remains at the sole discretion of ADEKA, which may issue a new Order Confirmation. Otherwise, the initial Order Confirmation will apply. Any changes to the Order shall result in an adjustment of the price and delivery time at the Purchaser's expense.

2.3. Cancellations or modifications of an Order must be requested by Purchaser in writing, and ADEKA, at its sole discretion, shall approve or deny them also in writing. The Purchaser agrees and guarantees to pay for any and all costs incurred by ADEKA in connection with the Order and any cancellation or modification request. Any cancellation or modification occurring after the manufacture or procurement of products has begun will be invoiced not less than full price, unless otherwise agreed in writing between the parties.

ARTICLE 3 - Prices

Most prices are revised each calendar quarter to consider, among others, changes in raw material costs, transportation costs if any, or general price list variations. Final Prices are stated in the Order Confirmation. Depending on the agreed Incoterm, the Products are invoiced at the prices in force on the day of delivery for transports by road or those in force on the date of departure for transports by sea. The agreed prices are net and exclusive of VAT. They are definitive and not subject to revision for the period of validity of the Offer. Prices are expressed in Euros (EUR) or Dollars (USD). The distribution of costs of transport and customs charges are defined by the Incoterm applicable to the Order. A special price in an Order does not reapply in the event of a repeat of an Order by the Purchaser. The quoted prices do not include any rebates that ADEKA may grant to the Purchaser. By specific written commercial agreement between the Parties, the Purchaser may benefit from discounts, depending on the annual quantities invoiced or its annual turnover.

ARTICLE 4 - Terms of payment

4.1 The Purchaser undertakes to pay the total price of the delivered Products by a single bank transfer within thirty (30) calendar days of the issuance of the invoice. In any case, Purchaser acknowledges that ADEKA's sales are subject to the mandatory rules and limits on terms of payment established in the French Code of Commerce (arts. L-441-10 and followings) and in the European Directive No. 2011/7/UE – 16th February 2011, both which shall apply to these GT&Cs for intra-European and extra-European Purchasers. The limits established therein are therefore applicable to ADEKA's sales. In accordance with the agreed Incoterm, the invoice is issued either on the delivery date or on the date of departure of the vessel. If the Purchaser carries out customs formalities, the payment period shall not be extended or postponed. All bank charges related to the payment are borne by the Purchaser. The Purchaser's payment obligations are deemed fulfilled upon receipt of the total amount of the invoice by ADEKA on ADEKA's bank account. Purchaser shall provide to ADEKA the SWIFT message issued by Purchaser's bank confirming the complete payment within two days after the payment. ADEKA may at its sole discretion request a deposit or advance payment. In such case, no production, shipment or delivery will take place prior confirmation of receipt of the funds by ADEKA. In case of advance payment, the total invoice must be paid in full within five (5) calendar days, unless otherwise agreed in writing by both parties. Failure to respect this deadline will entitle ADEKA to cancel the order.

4.2. Any delay in payment, payment incident or incomplete payment automatically gives rise to the payment by the Purchaser of late penalties set at three (3) times the legal interest rate and a fixed compensation for recovery costs of forty (40) EUR, referring to EU Regulation 2011/7/UE on late payment, without formality or prior formal notice and without prejudice to any other action, remedy or recourse that ADEKA may bring. ADEKA is entitled to claim additional compensation, upon presentation of supporting documents, if the recovery costs incurred exceed the amount of the abovementioned lump-sum indemnity. The deficient party undertakes to repay the entire amount of the debt and all the costs of litigation and arbitration (including legal fees etc.). Additionally, if the Purchaser fails to comply with the terms of payment, ADEKA shall have the right to (i) cancel, suspend or refuse the Purchaser's current or future Order(s); and (ii) demand immediate payment of all invoices issued, even if they are not yet due.

4.3 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, or unless the legal conditions referred to in article 1347-1 of the French Civil Code are met, ADEKA prohibits any set-off between its debts and those of the Purchaser or a third party.

4.4 Purchaser must inform ADEKA in the event of deterioration of its credit, failure to deposit documents and deeds with the competent administrative authorities, changes in its financial capacity or legal situation, registrations or privileges on its funds. In these cases, ADEKA reserves the right to demand either full payment before shipment or financial guarantees.

4.5 ADEKA cannot be held liable under the warranty sets hereinbelow in article 7 (or any other warranty or condition) if the total price of the Products has not been paid by the payment due date.

4.6 The invoice is due on the due date indicated on the text of the invoice, not on the date of its receipt by the Purchaser. ADEKA is not responsible for the Purchaser's invoicing platform issues or delays.

ARTICLE 5 - Retention of title - Transfer of risks

5.1 ADEKA RETAINS, UNTIL FULL PAYMENT BY THE PURCHASER OF THE INVOICE ISSUED BY ADEKA, OWNERSHIP OF THE DELIVERED PRODUCTS.

5.2 In the event of the Purchaser's bankruptcy or liquidation, ADEKA reserves the right to demand, at first request and without prior formal notice, the return of the delivered goods, wherever they may be located, at the Purchaser's expense and risk.

5.3 In the event of resale of unpaid Products by the Purchaser, ADEKA shall keep its ownership right. The Purchaser undertakes to communicate immediately the name and address of the third-party purchaser to enable ADEKA to exercise its right to claim the price. Any costs generated by this takeover will be the sole responsibility of the Purchaser.

5.4 The risks on the Products are transferred from ADEKA to the Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the Incoterm agreed in the Order Confirmation unless otherwise agreed in writing.

ARTICLE 6 - Delivery- Receipt

6.1 Delivery of the Products is planned in accordance with the agreed Incoterm and estimated delivery date stated in the Order Confirmation. ADEKA endeavors to respect the delivery date but shall not be held liable in case of a delay not directly caused by ADEKA. Delays in delivery depend on external logistical constraints which are beyond the control of ADEKA and shall not generate the payment of any penalty, indemnity or compensation. The Purchaser is immediately informed of any delay in delivery. If ADEKA is responsible for freight costs, ADEKA reserves the right to select the route and method of shipment. Shall the Purchaser request and ADEKA agree to a route or method involving higher than lowest rate, the Purchaser shall pay the excess transportation costs. Unless expressly agreed in writing between ADEKA and the Purchaser, ADEKA shall determine which is the most suitable way of packaging of the products, in accordance with applicable regulations and laws. The list of documents accompanying the Products when delivered is exclusively determined by the applicable regulations and laws.

Except in the event of proven Force majeure, the Purchaser shall collect the Products on the agreed delivery date. ADEKA shall charge all demurrage costs, if any, to the Purchaser.

6.2 Immediately after receipt of the Products, the Purchaser must inspect the delivered Products for wrong product delivery (product reference), visible defects in quality or errors in quantity. It is the Purchaser's responsibility to make any timely written and detailed claim upon delivery on the consignment note (hereinafter "CMR"), in accordance with the applicable regulations. As ADEKA subcontracts the transport of the Products, the Purchaser must send to ADEKA within three (3) working days following delivery, a written complaint describing the damage(s), pictures of the damage(s) and a copy of the CMR at delivery mentioning specific reservations. Otherwise, no claim will be considered. The Purchaser guarantees that the recipient of the transport will comply with this obligation.

ARTICLE 7 - Warranty - Product Conformity

7.1 Before any first Order of a Product and in the event of a change in the formula of a Product, the Purchaser receives a Material Safety Data Sheet (hereinafter "MSDS") and Technical Specifications (hereinafter "Specifications"). Upon receipt of the MSDS and Specifications the Purchaser can dispute their content before placing its Order. It is the Purchaser's responsibility to make any test and trial deemed useful before placing a first Order. Once the Order is placed, the terms of the MSDS and Specifications are deemed accepted in full by the Purchaser. ADEKA warrants that the Products conform with the specifications or quality data set forth in the Certificate of Analysis (COA) provided to the Purchaser before the delivery. In the event of a claim, the COA will be used to assess the conformity, quality and characteristics of the incriminated Products.

7.2 The Products are warranted for a period equal to their shelf life (indicated on the specifications) from the date of delivery and in any case no longer than two (2) years. This warranty covers the non-conformity of the Products with the Order Confirmation and the MSDS and/or the Specifications. It covers any defect resulting from a defect in material, design or manufacturing affecting the Products delivered.

7.3 In Order to assert its rights upon a claim, the Purchaser must, under penalty of forfeiture of any action relating thereto, notify ADEKA in electronic writing or by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt sent to the contact person of ADEKA, of the existence of Product defects: (i) within three (3) business days following delivery for any visible Product defect and (ii) within three (3) business days after its discovery for any Product defect not apparent on delivery but which may become so later. ADEKA may subject acceptance of a claim to the prior analysis of the sample of Product kept by ADEKA. If the analysis done by ADEKA does not confirm the validity of the claim, the Purchaser undertakes to send, at its own expense and at ADEKA's request, a sample of the Product in question for comparative analysis and verification of the reality of the claim. If a disagreement remains, the Parties may call upon an independent laboratory at the defaulting Party's expense.

All claims must be documented. Failing these formalities, no claim will be investigated. No visible defect may be invoked by the Purchaser after use of the Products in Production. The Purchaser is not entitled to suspend payments or terminate the Order in the event of a claim.

7.4 Under the abovementioned conditions, ADEKA will proceed to the replacement of the defective Products or to a refund of the paid price according to French law. The replacement of the Products does not extend the duration of this warranty.

ARTICLE 8 - LIMITED LIABILITY

8.1 THE PRODUCTS SHALL BE USED ONLY AS COMMONLY EXPECTED. ADEKA DOES NOT WARRANT IN ANY WAY THE SUITABILITY OF THE PRODUCTS FOR ANY DIFFERENT USE MADE OF THEM BY THE PURCHASER AND DECLINES ANY LIABILITY IN THE EVENT OF INCOMPATIBILITY, unless if such specific use has been expressly accepted in writing by ADEKA. Any warranty is excluded in the event of a defect resulting from incorrect information provided by the Purchaser, normal wear and tear, intentional damage, negligence, failure to comply with the instructions for use (packaging, storage, use, handling) or modification/transformation of the Products. ADEKA declines any other warranty or liability, express or implied regarding the Products marketing, their adaptation for a particular use or the results obtained from their use. The Purchaser shall bear all risks associated with the use of the Products, whether used alone or in combination with others, and shall remain solely liable for direct and indirect damages resulting from their use.

The warranty does not extend to any technical advice or recommendation provided by ADEKA to the Purchaser, whether provided orally or in writing. Subject to applicable public policy provisions, this warranty applies in lieu of any other warranty, action and/or recourse.

8.2 ADEKA is not liable for any compensation other than those provided for in the provisions of article 7. ADEKA is not liable to the Purchaser or any third party for any consequential and special damages, including, among others loss of profits, turnover, contracts; immaterial and indirect damages; any loss arising from any claim made against the Purchaser by any other person; loss or damage resulting from the Purchaser's failure to fulfill its obligations; loss or damage resulting from transport.

8.3 ADEKA shall not limit or exclude its liability in the event of gross negligence, willful misconduct, fraud, misrepresentation; death or personal injury caused by its own negligence; and any damage for which ADEKA cannot legally limit or exclude its liability.

8.4 Except in accordance with the provisions of article 7 and article 8.3 hereinabove, the total and cumulative liability of ADEKA under an Order, and for any damage or cause whatsoever, is limited to 10 % of the total amount of the corresponding Order. This cap constitutes the maximum amount of compensation, accepted in full knowledge of the facts by the Purchaser. This amount is in full discharge of any other compensation of any nature and any penalty.

ARTICLE 9 - Return of Products

9.1. Any return of Products is subject to compliance with the conditions and deadlines for claims set out hereinabove in article 7. Any return of Product will be made and/or accepted at the sole discretion of ADEKA and the Purchaser shall not return any Products without ADEKA's prior authorization. Under no circumstances may the Purchaser unilaterally decide to return the Products, nor may it refuse to pay part or all of the invoice corresponding to the delivered order.

9.2 In case of defective Goods, the Purchaser shall not proceed to the destruction of the Goods without prior written authorization from ADEKA. If the Buyer does not inform ADEKA and proceeds to the destruction of the goods, ADEKA shall not be obliged to reimburse the destruction costs, and the Purchaser shall hold ADEKA harmless from any claims coming from any third party in connection with such destruction.

9.3 Defective Products must be returned at ADEKA's manufacturing plant or such other location as ADEKA may designate in the same condition as delivered, respecting identical packaging, storage and transport requirements. Failing this, the Products returned will not be accepted by ADEKA.

9.4 The re-stocking fees, costs and risks of returning Products presumed defective are the responsibility of the Purchaser unless otherwise agreed in advance.

9.5 Products returned that are not determined by ADEKA to be defective Products, shall be returned to Purchaser at Purchaser's expense (including without limitation the two-way cost of shipment) and Purchaser shall pay the full invoice price for such Product.

9.6 If the Product is defective because of ADEKA's proven fault, ADEKA will replace or reimburse the price of such Product, in accordance with Article 7.

9.7. It is the responsibility of the Purchaser to include any written reservation on the CMR in case of transport damage. A copy of the CMR together with pictures of the damage(s) and a complete description of them must be sent to ADEKA within three (3) business days after the delivery. Failing this procedure, the claim shall not be processed.

9.8. All specially manufactured or specially ordered Products, or Products modified to Purchaser's requirements, or Products which would be unsaleable by ADEKA to another Purchaser, are provided on a final sale basis and returns of these Products will not be accepted.

ARTICLE 10 - Force Majeure

10.1 Neither Party shall be held liable in any way if the non-execution or delay in the execution of one of its obligations under an Order is due to an event of Force Majeure, as defined by French law and French case law. Customer's obligation to pay for the Products shall in no event be excused by Force Majeure. A force majeure event does not include an act of negligence or intentional wrongdoing by a party. Shall be considered as a Force Majeure event, including but not limited to, acts of war or terrorism, civil or military disturbances, economic sanctions, fire or explosions, nuclear or natural catastrophes, epidemics and pandemics, strikes, severe labor shortages, raw material shortages, transport and plant stoppages, acts of government. The Party affected by a Force Majeure event shall immediately notify the other Party in writing and provide it with all relevant information. The Parties shall approach each other within a maximum of five (5) business days after the notification of the occurrence of the event to examine its impact and agree on the conditions under which the execution of the Order could be continued. Each Party claiming a Force Majeure event shall use its best efforts to mitigate the effects, remedy its inability to perform, and resume full performance of its obligations. The time limit(s) for the execution of the Order is extended by a duration equivalent to the duration of the Force Majeure event and its remedies. If the Force Majeure event lasts longer than thirty (30) calendar days, each of the Parties may immediately terminate the Order by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt, without any compensation being due from either side in this respect. If part of the ordered Products is still ready for delivery the Purchaser undertakes to take delivery and pay the agreed price

10.2 Due to the unique situation of the Covid-19, it is expressly agreed that neither Party will be held liable for any failure to perform any obligation beyond its control, whatsoever, arising out of or in connection with the execution of an Order and resulting directly from the health crisis of the Covid-19, including among others plant or transport stoppages, shortage, late delivery, late payment. Such non-performance shall be supported by documentary evidence. The Parties undertake to make every effort to fulfil their contractual obligations under the execution of an order during the Covid-19 crisis and to immediately inform the other Party of any foreseeable non-performance of their obligation.

ARTICLE 11 - Economic Hardship

Shall ADEKA encounter economic circumstances other than anticipated at the time of the conclusion of Contract, including without limitation shortage, significant changes in the costs of raw material, currency conversion, or logistics costs associated with the manufacturing, handling, shipping or transport of Products; or compliance with governmental decisions, ADEKA has the option, upon presentation of supporting documents, to reasonably increase prices or to ask for a renegotiation of the terms of the Contract to take into account these circumstances.

ARTICLE 12 - Intellectual Property

12.1 The acceptance and execution of an Order by ADEKA does not transfer any intellectual property rights to the Purchaser in respect of the Products, including, without limitation, trademarks, patents, or other intellectual property rights and, where such intellectual property right can be registered, whether or not it is registered.

12.2 The Purchaser warrants that the applications, combination, and uses made of the Products including any labels or trademarks it has affixed to the Products are free from claim of a third party for infringement or misappropriation of any intellectual property rights. ADEKA is not liable for any infringement or misappropriation of any intellectual property of any nature resulting in the use, manufacture, process, or sale of the Products in combination with other materials. The Purchaser is solely responsible for respecting the intellectual property rights of third Parties and, in particular, the formulas and specifications it has communicated to ADEKA for the execution of the Order and the manufacture of the Products. The purchaser shall defend, at its sole expense, indemnify and hold ADEKA harmless from any claim, suit, action or proceeding for alleged infringement or misappropriation of any intellectual property rights associated with the products and he guarantees and waives all actions (personal and/or recourse) against ADEKA in this respect.

ARTICLE 13 - Confidentiality

The Parties undertake to treat as strictly confidential all documents and information (technical, commercial, financial) exchanged between them within the framework of the Order, whatever their nature and format (oral or written) from the preparation to its final execution. All confidential information provided by either Party shall be used solely for the execution of the Order. The Parties shall not disclose any relevant information to any third parties and/or those for which it was disclosed, from disclosing it to any third party whatsoever, unless it can prove that it was already aware of it, has received it from a third party not bound by an obligation of confidentiality or that such information is in the public domain or must be disclosed by virtue of an applicable mandatory law or enforceable court decision or for the purposes of technical or financial certification by external audit bodies. Each party commits to ensure that its employees, collaborators, partners and managers comply with these provisions. Notwithstanding any provision of these Terms and Conditions, each Purchaser shall continue to be bound by the provisions of any confidentiality, non-disclosure or similar agreement executed by or on behalf of Purchaser for ADEKA's benefit. This obligation shall survive the completion, expiration or termination of the Agreement/Order for any reason for (5) five years after its termination.

ARTICLE 14 - Inventories and Onepacks

The Purchaser always undertakes to comply with the Trade Restrictions in all forms and not to sell to legal or natural persons designated on such prohibition lists and shall not place ADEKA or its Affiliates in breach of these restrictions. In the event of a breach of this commitment, ADEKA is entitled to terminate the contract with immediate effect. ADEKA cannot be held liable in the event of non-conforming or illegal use of one of its Products.
